MEDITATIONS ON EMPTINESS

HOMEWORK FOR CLASS THREE

1. How does the commentator on the Guide to the Bodhisattva's Way of Life, Gyaltsab Je, answer the question of how beings who are like an illusion can still take rebirth?
2. Explain why good and bad deeds are like an illusion, and yet still function perfectly well.
3. What does Master Shantideva say about whether or not he is refuting the existence of things as they are known to us by our senses?
4. What is the cause of the mental afflictions arising around objects which are, ultimately, illusory?
