Depth Course 5: Setting Fire to Your Meditation, Part II

Homework Nine: Beyond Knowledge Itself

1) What is the meaning of the term “Greater Way” in the sutra Journey to Lanka?

2) What does Master Kamalashila mean when he says we will come to realize that the things whose very definition is “an object which we can see” cannot be seen?

3) What is the eye of wisdom, and what does it see?

4) What does the phrase “no core, within or without” mean in the King of Concentration sutra?

5) Explain exactly where the text we are reading came from:

6) What amazing implication can be made after we understand that knowledge itself is empty?

Hypertext assignment: On the back side of this page, write out either the Tibetan or the Sanskrit script of the sutra quotation which starts “Experience the indications..”, and then write each English word underneath the corresponding Tibetan or Sanskrit word.
