Quiz, Class Six: Nine Images for the Concealed Buddha

In traditional explanations of Buddha-nature, or the fact that we are devoid of any nature of our own, there are a group of famous verses which are often quoted from The Commentary on the Latter Part.

These verses present nine images to describe how our true nature is concealed. For this quiz, state only two of these images and then explain them, remembering to give the specific obstacle which prevents it from being revealed to us. The two images that you should explain are the ones that relate to a poor man's hut, and the one that relates to a ragged cloth. (Tibetan and Sanskrit tracks give the name of the images in these languages.)
